Sunday, October 2 is Respect Life Sunday. October is Respect Life Month.

Respect Life Baby Bottle Campaign

During October the Respect Life Committee will sponsor a Baby Bottle Campaign: Sunday, October 9 - Sunday, October 23. At the end of Mass on October 8 and 9, we will distribute baby bottles, asking you to take one bottle per family.

Please take the bottles home, fill them with cash or coins, and return them to the church on Sunday, October 23. The money collected will help the Women's Center and Aid for Women continue their work of assisting, offering hope, and meeting the needs of women and families facing crisis pregnancy situations. Please direct any questions to Monica Cassidy at monccas@comcast.net.

Why Was The Roman Missal Revised?

Kristopher W. Seaman

For several years, bishops in English-speaking countries have been working together to produce a unified translation of the texts of the Mass. The book used by the priest at eucharistic liturgies is called The Roman Missal. It contains all of the prayers of the eucharistic liturgy. The Order of Mass, prayers for a feast day, Solemn Blessings, and Eucharistic Prayers are all found in The Roman Missal.

As your parish studies the revised translation, you will see that many of the priest's and people's parts have changed. For example, when the priest celebrant proclaims, "The Lord be with you," the people will reply, "And with your spirit." Other revisions, too, will help assemblies relate the prayers of the Mass to scripture.

You may find it helpful to review the information on The Roman Missal at www.RevisedRomanMissal.org. The revised prayers of the Mass will be implemented on November 27, 2011.
